EFFECTIVE VOTING—Story No. 1.

Did You Vote in the Last Municipal Election?

Whether voting or not voting
do you consider yourself adequately represented in the present Municipal Government?

POST CARD

Bureau of Municipal Research,
813 Bank of Hamilton Building,

67 Yonge Street, Toronto,

A. If you voted, was it

1. To discharge a pleasant unpleasant duty ?
2. To grasp an opportunity ?
3. To carry on an established habit ?
4. With expectation that your vote would count ?
5. In spite of a belief that it was no use?

B. If you did not vote, was it

1. Because there was no candidate on the list for whom you felt like voting?
2. Because you felt you would be wasting time to vote ?
3. Because you were too busy ?
4. Because you were out of town ?
5. Because you were ill ?

The reasons indicated above, are some of those frequently given for voting or not voting, and we should like to test how representative they are, with a view to suggesting means of securing more effective voting.

If you will fill out and mail the attached return card we think you will find it worth while. Correspondents' names will be kept strictly confidential.
